

Torre de la Horadada, Mil Palmeras and El Mojón

The coastal villages of Torre de la Horadada, Mil Palmeras and El Mojón, are part of the town of Pilar de la Horadada (featured separately). They provide the inland administrative town with almost 5 km of coastline, sandy beaches and a marina.

Torre de la Horadada is easily recognisable by its watchtower, which was built as part of the coastal defence communication system to warn of impending attacks by pirates. It has a large village square, a church, a couple of lovely sandy beaches, a quaint marina with just over 500 moorings and a long promenade which joins the beaches of El Mojón to the south and Mil Palmeras to the north.

El Mojón is quite unique as half of it is located in Pilar de la Horadada and the Comunidad Valenciana and the other half in San Pedro del Pinatar and the Region of Murcia! Situated to the south of Torre de la Horadada it has a lovely beach and a quaint old style feel to it.

Meanwhile Mil Palmeras, to the north of Torre de la Horadada, has experienced a massive building boom. The beach is still the main attraction and depending on the time of the year it ranges in width, although the fine golden sand is always guaranteed. The promenade, with a few small deviations, runs the length of the beach taking you north to Dehesa de Campoamor or south to Torre de la Horadada. Mil Palmeras has a quaint 'restaurant alley' which is packed with international restaurants specialising in their own cuisine and the Lo Monte Natural Park which is a special reserve for birds.

Torre de la Horadada Village Centre 37.868650, -0.757633

Torre de la Horadada Marina 37.868150, -0.758017

The marina is located beside the watch tower with beaches to the north and south and is backed by the promenade.

Torre de la Horadada Beach South 37.856550, -0.764533

Torre de la Horadada Beach North 37.880567, -0.754500

El Mojon Beach 37.849250, -0.762750

Mil Palmeras Village Centre 37.884550, -0.754767

Car park with 'Restaurant Alley' leading to the beach.

Mil Palmeras Beach & Promenade 37.888217, -0.753650

Face the sea and turn left to walk north to Dehesa de Campoamor, or turn right to walk south to Torre de la Horadada, when you get to the Rio Seco either walk along the beach or head inland a few hundred meters to the bridge and continue onto El Mojón.

Mil Palmeras Lo Monte Natural Park 37.898483, -0.781450

The park was constructed in 1989 and covers an area of 10.3 hectares. It has a 80,000m<sup>2</sup> lake and is a protected area for birds. It is open for visits at the weekend only. Exit the main road at the sign and continue, the park is on your left hand side just before the EDAR water treatment works.

Bars, Restaurants and Shops

Torre Horadada CC Pueblo Latino 37.874400, -0.757067

El Mojón Village 37.849250, -0.762750

Mil Palmeras Restaurant Alley 37.883200, -0.754200

Annual Fiestas and Events

Patron Saint Fiesta Torre Horadada Virgen de la Asuncion 15th August

Patron Saint Fiesta El Mojón San Roque 16th August

Patron Saint Fiesta Mil Palmeras Ntra. Sra. de la Alegría beginning of August