MUTUA MADRID OPEN

This is a joint men's and women's professional tennis tournament. The clay-court event is classified as an ATP Tour Masters 1000 on the ATP Tour and a WTA 1000 event on the WTA Tour. In the past, it has also been known as the Madrid Masters. This year the tournament runs from the 24th April to the 7th May 2023 and player numbers have been increased for the Men's competition from 56 to 96 and for the Women's competition from 64 to 96 players.

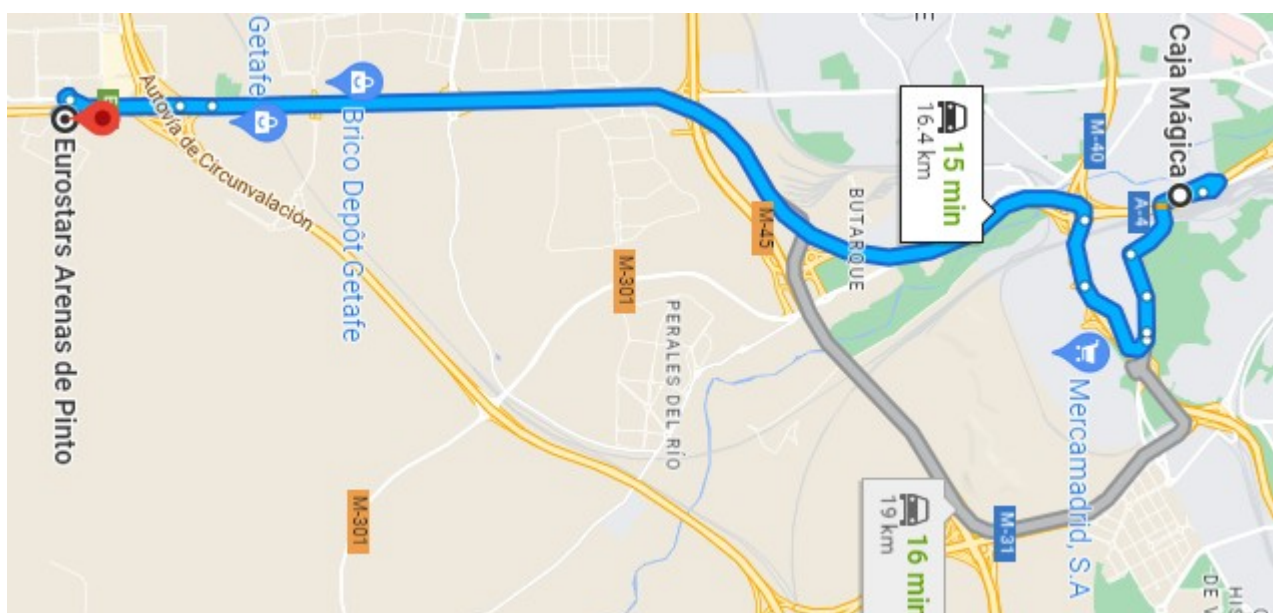

The centre court tickets also give access to Court 3 and all of the Tennis Garden Courts where you can get close to the players. Inside the Caja Mágica there is a Food Court with 18 stalls for refreshments throughout the tournament, as well as a shopping street for all things tennis related.

The players are confirmed the evening before, the provisional schedule is

Tuesday	ATP (mens): 4th Round
	WTA (womens): Quarter-Finals
Wednesday	ATP (mens): Quarter-Finals
	WTA (womens): Quarter-Finals

Reviews from the 2022 Coach Tour (different hotel)

Steve Sainty

Madrid Open Tennis Trip. What an absolutely fabulous trip this was. The organisation by Jessica and David was superb. Jessica looked after us every step of the way and made the trip very enjoyable and relaxed. The tennis was exceptional and the chosen seats were in good positions to watch the matches. To finally enjoy a major tennis tournament live, was enthralling. Thank you very much.

Thank you so much to David and Jessica. You make dreams come true. I have been wanting to watch top level tennis for nearly 50 years and finally it happened!

The trip was so well planned, with every detail taken into account and thought through, to ensure that us travellers were comfortable and enjoyed the adventure to the full.

Thank you so much.
